Looking forward to the 66th Berlin International Film Festival

The 65th Berlinale came to a splendid close with the award ceremony. The presentation of the Golden Bear to the film Taxi by Jafar Panahi evoked great emotions and was one of the most intense moments among the many highlights at this year's festival. For eleven days the Berlinale demonstrated the creative power and diversity of cinema, as well as welcomed guests and the public at many panel discussions and talks on the seventh art.

With 334,000 tickets sold by the end of the festival, a new attendance record was set. The programme was widely acclaimed by both the public and the critics, and now everybody is looking forward to the Berlinale 2016.

The 66th Berlin International Film Festival Berlin will be held from February 11 to 21, 2016.
